Conference Banquet
The Society has secured a truly elegant private dining room and balcony at the Rex Room on Bourbon, 200 Bourbon St., for the conference banquet on Saturday, November 4. Local restaurant critics routinely praise the Rex Room’s delicious food and jazzy ambience, so we are in for quite a treat. As a CBBS board member’s friend (and New Orleans native) remarked upon learning that the Society was only charging participants $30 for a four-course meal at the Rex Room, “Really? Are you kidding? It usually costs $25 just to park at the Rex Room . . . we love that place!” And so will you. A cocktail hour featuring complimentary wine (and a cash bar) begins at 6 p.m., followed by a seated dinner, 7:00-8:30 p.m. Dinner includes appetizer, salad, entrée, and dessert, as well as complimentary water, iced tea, coffee, and wine. Subsidized by the Society (the actual cost of the dinner is $69 per person!), the dinner is an astonishing value at $30. However, attendance is LIMITED TO THE FIRST 35 Registrants who sign up for the banquet. Be sure to register as early as possible, but certainly by no later than October 20, as the management of the Rex Room requires that the Society provide them with the final number of attendees and their entrée selections (see registration form) by then. For more information on the Rex Room, see www.rexroom.com.

Transportation
The Airport Shuttle costs $13 each way and transports guest directly from and to the airport 24 hours per day at 20 minute time intervals. Ticket booths are in the baggage claim area. Phone number is (504) 522-3500.
